My Story

Every artist dips his brush in his own soul, and paints his own nature into his pictures.
— Henry Ward Beecher

Everyone has a story. Art is a powerful tool to express these truths to ourselves and to the world. The Albrecht-Kemper Museum of Art would like to announce a juried exhibition, My Story, that will showcase artists telling their stories through the media of their choice. The exhibition will be on view September 15-November 4, 2018. The jurors will also be naming a Best in Show winner.

Eligibility:

The exhibition is open to all citizens of the United States. All artwork must be the original work of the submitting artist.

Guidelines:

- All media (2D and 3D) are eligible. Maximum size: 60” in length, width and height, including frame. 50 pound maximum for all works. No artwork may be suspended from the ceiling.
- A non-refundable fee of $10 per artwork for museum members and $20 per artwork for non-members will entitle the artist to submit up to five (5) artworks. This fee can be paid via check, PayPal at albrecht-kemper.org, or by calling 816-233-7003.
- Artists are encouraged to include a short statement in the “My Story” section of the entry form. Excerpts from these statements may be used in publicity and text accompanying the exhibition.
- Artists are permitted to list their works for sale. The AKMA takes a 30% commission on all sales during the exhibition.
- Artists will be responsible for all shipping costs to and from the museum. Accepted entries may be hand delivered on the specified date as well.

Calendar:
